DALLAS, TEXAS

It is now as cool and clear a small town as the columns of the HERALD to address its many readers in the West and South. The sun will not be seen again, though it will be gathered. Fruit abundant and excellent. Wheat and oats above an average, but too wet to keep in shock or them.

STATE.

The Chesapeake & Ohio announces that on Wednesday, August 1st, it will open its line to the sea, the line of the Newport News & Mississippi Valley Railroad, and the line of the Atlantic & Great Western, to Old Point Comfort on the sea shore.

The train will be composed of the Pullman, Buffet, Sleepers, and will be under the direction of a special agent of the company.

It is intended to make this the most attractive excursion ever run.

For Kentucky, ample provisions will be made for the comfort of the guests.

That is owing to the liberal and prompt advance on real estate.

With many patient readers who are not in the habit of reading

the "Daily" make up the editor of the

the Herald. I being a Methodist, feel that I have a right to speak a word or two in my own defense.

Knowing full well that I am desirous of doing whatever I can and more to help the cause of Methodism, I am compelled to offer, I venture to enter this my respectful protest against the writing of "The Herald" and the editor of the Methodist.

There are several features of this trip which specially commend the traveler along the route.

The Chesapeake & Ohio is the best railroad in the country.
